

"Conviction of Doyle in Kentucky," Baltimore (MD) Sun, October 17, 1848
<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/baltimore-md-sun-conviction-doyle-kentucky-october-17-1848>

CONVICTION OF DOYLE IN KENTUCKY.—The white man Doyle, who figured so largely in the great slave stampede in Kentucky, some time since, resisting the pursuers of the negroes, &c., was convicted of the offence at Lexington on the 9th inst., and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years.