

Telegraph for the North American.
Slave Stampede and Resistance—Their Leader Killed.

QUINCY, (Ill.) Nov. 6.

Last night about fifty negroes, of all ages and sexes, with teams, stampeded from the Missouri side of the river. The slaves were owned by Miss Miller, Mr. McKim and Mr. McCutcheon, of Sugar Creek, and Mr. Ellis, of Monticello, Lewis county.— The slaves were overhauled on Saturday morning, and after a desperate resistance and the loss of their leader, they were captured. The slave who was killed belonged to Miss Miller.

The Missouri Bank Defalcation.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.

The trial of Nathaniel Childs, for embezzling the funds of the Missouri Bank, commenced yesterday. A jury was empannelled at 2 o'clock to-day, after exhausting a special venire of fifty. Numerous and able counsel are employed on both sides. Much interest is manifested in the trial.

Annexation Movement.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.

A grand annexation meeting is to be held in this city on Thursday next.