

Messrs, Editors :—In your paper of the 22d inst., there is a communication signed "Justice" which refers to the slave stampede in this neighborhood on the 16th, saying "that it was rumored that a colored person had betrayed the slaves, but, unfortunately, the one they accuse of having done so, started north with a part of the same gang the night before the capture ; and this rumor was only to prevent, and may be, to save the underground car from being upset or overtaken " Now, in order to correct public sentiment in regard to that man's conduct in this matter, I would refer them to the following certificate of the agent of the northern line of stages :

Springfield, Jan. 22, 1850.

This is to certify that Mr. Jenkins left for Bloomington on the 16th day of January, 1850, in the stage.
