

THE NEGROES LEAVING.—We learn from the Rockingham, Va: Register, that on the 4th inst., there was a considerable stampede among the negroes of Pendleton county, in that State. Z. Dyer, Esq., late Clerk of the County, lost three; Cyrus Hopkins, Esq., two; and Elijah Stonestreet, one.—About a year since, A. W. Dyer, of the same county, lost four of his most valuable slaves in the same way.
