

The white man Doyle, who figured so largely in the great slave stampede in Kentucky, some time since, resisting the pursuers of the negroes, &c., was convicted of the offence at Lexington, on the 9th instant, and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years.