

"Stampede of Negroes," Louisville (KY) Daily Courier, June 16, 1854
<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/louisville-ky-daily-courier-stampede-negroes-june-16-1854>

STAMPEDE OF NEGROES.—During the night of Tuesday, twenty-three negroes, belonging to gentlemen in Grant county, absconded. They got away by seizing several canoes in the Licking river, in which they floated to the Ohio, and finally landed upon the foreign side of the river some distance below Cincinnati.