

"Slave Stampede," New Lisbon (OH) Anti-Slavery Bugle, October 1, 1853
<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/new-lisbon-oh-anti-slavery-bugle-slave-stampede-october-1-1853>

SLAVE STAMPEDE.—The Cincinnati Commercial says there was a serious negro stampede from plantations sixty miles back of the river, in Kentucky, on Saturday night. Of eleven slaves who decamped, five succeeded in crossing the Ohio, a few miles below this city, yesterday. Their pursuers were in town last night, but learning that the fugitives had got twelve hours start, gave up the chase.
