HEAVY ROBBERY.—Stampede of Slaves.—On Saturday night a serious stampede of slaves occurred in this city. Five likely and valuable slaves made off for parts unknown, one of them taking $1,500 of his master's money with him. One negro belonged to Mr. Geo. E. Sadler, one to Mr. R. H. Dickinson, one to Jones & Slater, and two others. The one belonging to Messrs. Jones & Slater enjoyed their fullest confidence. For a long time he had been making their deposits in bank for them.
