

"Escape of Slaves from Loudon," Richmond (VA) Dispatch, September 17, 1856
<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/richmond-va-dispatch-escape-slaves-loudon-september-17-1856>

Escape of Slaves from Loudoun.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DISPATCH.

LEESBURG, Loudoun, Sept. 15th.

A stampede of negroes took place in this county Saturday night or Sunday. General Rust loses three, Gabriel Vanderverter three, Charles Douglas one woman and her children. Eight grown persons, and I believe three children. More may be gone, but it is too early in the day to ascertain the fact.
