

Newark (NJ) Centinel of Freedom, September 1, 1857

<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/newark-nj-centinel-freedom-september-1-1857>

---

A Slave Stampede occurred at Washington, D. C., a few days ago. Over a dozen negroes, male and female, having received permission to go to a camp meeting in Montgomery county, Md., embraced the occasion to seek a more permanent camp in Canada, among Col. Prince's constituents, no doubt attracted by his representations of the Elysian laziness up there.

---