

On Saturday night last, there was a negro stampede from the neighborhood of Lovettesville, in this county, in which about fifteen slaves left for parts unknown. Among the sufferers by this flight, is Col. R. L. Wright, Col. Waltman, Mr. Wenner, and others whose names we did not learn.