
a stampede among the negroes in the neighboring counties of Virginia during the past fortnight. Two of them were apprehended in this vicinity, and lodged in the jail at this place.— They have been returned to their masters.
