
STAMPEDE — Ten negroes, three women, two children and five men, ran away from Morgantown, Va., on the night of the 31st, taking with them seven horses. Their owners pursued them and overtook them in Fayette county Pa., but were driven back, one of the pursuers being badly injured.
