

GREAT STAMPEDE OF SLAVES.—We learn from reliable authority that seventy-five fugitive slaves arrived in Canada by one train from the interior of Tennessee. This is probably the largest number that ever escaped in one company. Nearly at the same time, one of seven and another of five safely landed on the free soil of Canada, making ninety-nine in all, worth at the present market price the handsome sum of $94,000. The underground railroad was never before doing so flourishing a business. At the rate these ungrateful fellows are stealing themselves, the market must be seriously affected, unless supplied direct from Africa.—Detroit Advertiser, 12th
