

"Stampede of Negroes in Missouri," Cleveland (OH) Daily Leader, November 18, 1859
<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/cleveland-oh-daily-leader-stampede-negroes-missouri-november-18-1859>

Stampede of Negroes in Missouri.

The St. Louis News of the 14th notices the escape of $11,000 worth of chattels from LAGRANGE, Missouri. The party consisted of six males and five females. They took a flat boat and crossed to Illinois in the night, and probably secured a safe passage over the U. G. R. R., though the seven persons who claimed ownership offered a reward of $2,650 for their arrest
