

STAMPEDE OF NEGROES FROM LEWIS COUNTY
Mo.—The St. Louis Evening News, of the 14th instant, says :

Last Monday night ten negroes, five males and five females, ran off from Lagrange, Lewis county, in this State. They belonged to seven different persons, and being valuable slaves, were worth not less than $10,000. They stole a flatboat, with which they crossed to the Illinois shore, with the help, no doubt, of Abolitionists. A reward of $2650 is offered for their arrest. On Friday night another negro belonging to Captain Lillard, of the same place, effected his escape, making eleven in all.
