

 There was a stampede of negroes, 14 in number, consisting of men, women and children, in the neighborhood of Lewinsville, on Monday. They came to our lines, saying they were to be sent to Manassas this morning. Gen. Smith sent them to Washington. They belonged to the estate of the late Commodore Jones. They stated that they left at home only a daughter of the Commodore, her mother having departed some time ago for Manassas Junction.