

Fourteen negroes, the property of the late Com. Jones, made a stampede from near Lewinsville, and came into our lines. Gen. Smith sent them to Washington. The negroes say they were to have been sent South.