

"More Abolition Hopes from the Fremont Measure," New York (NY) Herald, October 4, 1861

<https://stampedes.dickinson.edu/document/new-york-ny-herald-more-abolition-hopes-fremont-measure-october-4-1861>

MORE ABOLITION HOPES FROM THE FREMONT MEASURE.

[From the London Star, Sept. 18.]

Already the slaves of insurrectionists in Missouri are declared free. Neither reason nor necessity will allow the abolition movement to halt half-way. Whosoever is not with the Union must be deemed against it. Only active allegiance can secure to a slaveowner the legal possession of his human chattels, and as these are locomotive articles the legal security may prove of little worth in a general stampede. The spirit of the New England regiments that march through New York singing John Brown's hymn may breed infection in the federal camp.

Slave Stampedes on the Southern Borderlands

National Park Service Network to Freedom / House Divided Project at Dickinson College