SLAVE STANPEDE FROM HANSIBAL. The North Misson i (Hannibal). Comier of March 25th, says that "some thirty or forty 'American citizens of African descent,' on ned in and around this city, evidently weary of waiting for Congress and the Legislature to make Missouri a free State -and disgusted at being residents, of a Commonwealth in which no appearances seemed to assure them that it would soon te free and prosperous-concluded a few nights since to passacts of inditidual and immediate emancipation, with deportation. but without compensation even to floyal owners." They therefore quietly abolish. ed themselves into Illinois, leaving their disconsolate proprietors to the sail reflection that had Congress and the Legislature done, their dufy; several hundreds of dollars would have inused to their use and benefit where 'nary red' now represents the value of their departed fellow-cifis zens."
