
AFFAIRS IN BALTIMORE COUNTY.—We copy the following from the Towson town Advocate:

Stampede of Negroes.—We understand that a number of slaves have left their owners in the neighborhood of Pikesville recently; in fact, there seems to be a general exodus of them in that portion of the county. If this state of things continue, and it undoubtedly will, in a short time there will not be an able-bodied slave in that section of the country.