
ANOTHER SLAVE STAMPEDE AT NORFOLK.—
Saturday night last, says the Norfolk Herald, a party of five negroes, undeterred by the recent failure of some other negroes in Norfolk to escape, disappeared. Strong suspicions were entertained that they were on board a Northern schooner, which it was supposed was detained in Hampton Roads by bad weather. Accordingly a strong party of citizens, accompanied by two policemen, took boats and started after the vessel, but had not returned at a late hour Monday night. Two of the slaves belonged to Mr. T. Bottimore, one to L. Stosser, one to Messrs. Herman & Co., and one to Dr. Behan.

Last week, two slaves escaped from Mr. Seth March, who has gone to the North to try and reclaim them.—Richmond Dispatch.
