

GRAND STAMPEDE.—On Friday or Saturday night last, between twenty and twenty-five slaves, belonging to different plantations in Kenton county, Ky., across the river, left for parts unknown via the State of Ohio. We learn that the aggregate amount of reward for their apprehension is over four thousand dollars.

---