

---

 The Algerines will probably soon have an accession to their forces, as we perceive that a "stampede" has taken place among the blacks in Kentucky, twenty-five of them having left for parts unknown. It is very probable they will come to this State, as they can here enjoy political privileges not extended to white men!

---