

Circuit Court of the U.S. for the 7th Circuit & District of Michigan

Thornton Timberlake

vs
Josiah Osborn
Jefferson Osborn
Edison Osborn
David T. Nicholson
Ismael Lee
William Corneal
Ebenezer McIlvain

This suit having been this day settled upon the condition that the same is to be discontinued on the part of the Plaintiff without any judgment for costs in said cause being taken or entered either for the said Plaintiff, or for the above named Defendants or any of them.
Therefore it is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between the said Plaintiff, and David T. Nicholson and Ismael Lee two of the Defendants in the above entitled cause as follows: First the said Plaintiff is to discontinue said cause on or before the first day of the next term of said Court. Secondly said suit is not again to be instituted against the last above named Defendants: Thirdly that no judgment for costs in said cause is to be taken or entered either for the said Plaintiff or the said defendants in said Cause or either of them.

Dated at Capasolis Michigan this third day of December A.D. 1851.
